A friend is a gift you give to yourself. Friends are those people in your life with whom you do not have any blood relation. It's a relation of love and affection towards other people. Your friend is someone with whom you feel comfortable and can easily share your thoughts and feelings. You do not have to think twice when you are with your friends. A true friend loves you unconditionally, understands you, but never judges you and always tries to support you and give you good advice.

A true friend is one who will always be there when you need someone. He will leave all his important works but will never leave you alone, especially in your difficult times. That is why it is said “a friend in need is a friend indeed”. Difficult times are the best time to realize who your true friends are. Blessed are the souls who have true friends. It does not matter how many friends you have, what matters is how many true friends you have. Friends show us how to live a life in a different way; they are the ones who can change our viewpoints for good. There is no growth of the person without any friend. It's essential to have a friend to understand life.

A. True / False statements

THE PYRAMIDS OF GIZA

Egypt has more than one hundred pyramids that are scattered around the country. Those pyramids were built of sandstone brick and as royal tombs for the Egyptian rulers. The three most famous pyramids in Egypt are the pyramids of Giza. They were named the great pyramid of Khufu, the pyramid of Khafre and the pyramid of Menkaure. These pyramids were located on the outskirts of Cairo, which is about eight kilometers from the old city of Giza. Each of the three pyramids has its own features. The pyramid of Khufu, known as the Great Pyramid of Giza, is one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. It is considered the oldest and the only ancient wonder that has survived until the present. Egyptologists believe that the pyramid was built over a period of 20 years as a tomb for Pharaoh Khufu, the fourth dynasty Egyptian pharaoh. Nearby, the pyramid of Khufu's son named the pyramid of Khafre, was built on higher ground. Thus, to the naked eye, it appears to be the tallest of the three pyramids, but in reality, the pyramid of Khufu is the tallest and also the largest Egyptian pyramid ever built. The pyramid of Menkaure, the pyramid of Khafre's son, is the third pyramid at the Giza cemetery. It has three smaller pyramids which are next to this main structure and are called the Queen's Pyramids.

Dear Tom,

It's very nice to write you again. How are you? I have just returned from my summer trip to Nha Trang with my family. Let me tell you about that interesting trip.

Well, Nha Trang is a major city of Khanh Hoa province, Vietnam. This beautiful city is a popular destination for tourists because of its wonderful beaches with turquoise water.

Although Nha Trang is more than 1000 km from Hanoi, it only took us two hours to get there by plane. On our five days there, we enjoyed eating seafood, sightseeing some famous places and walking along the beach at night. All the sights are so magnificent. The weather was perfect, too. It was sunny and windy during the time we were there. Local people are also very hospitable. The trip has made a good impression on all members in my family. Next year, if we have time, we will come back this great city.

Where did you go on this summer vacation? Write to me and tell me about your vacation destination.

Love,

Daisy

New Year's Eve, 31st December, is a time for the British to eat, drink and party when they celebrate the beginning of a New Year. Many people go to Trafalgar Square in London or a street party in their city. Others visit friends or go to pubs and restaurants, which are very crowded on that night.

There is a great atmosphere when everyone waits for Big Ben to strike midnight. Then people kiss and hold hands to sing the traditional Scottish song Auld Lang Syne. Many people also light fireworks at midnight.

The main tradition is 'First Footing'. This means the first person to come into your house after midnight should be a tall dark-haired man. He should bring a piece of coal, some bread, salt or a bottle of whisky to bring good luck to the family.

A lot of people also make New Year's Resolution; they promise to do things like stop smoking or 'do more exercise' in the New Year. January 1st (and 2nd in Scotland) is a public holiday so their people can recover from their celebrations.

1. On New Year's Eve everyone stays at home.

2. People sing a traditional song at midnight.

3. There are no fireworks on New Year's Eve.

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE?

One of the most popular quiz programmes on television in the world is called Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? In Britain, the quiz master is Chris Tarrant. He asks the contestants fifteen questions. The first questions are easy but later they are more difficult. If you answer the fourteenth question correctly, you can win £500,000. You can win a million pounds if you can answer the last question. Of course, it is very difficult to come to the last question.

All the questions on Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? are multiple-choice questions. After you hear the question, you see four answers. Only one answer is correct. You have to choose the correct answer. If you don't know the answer to a question, there are three ways you can get help: you can ask the quizmaster to take away two wrong answers; you can ask the studio audience which answer is right; or you can telephone a friend and ask for help. You can only do these things once. Very few people win the million pounds. The first person won a million pounds one year after the programme started.

Today, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, can be seen in more than 100 countries and is now the world's most popular quiz programme.

- _____ 1. “Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?” is the most popular quiz programme on television in the world.
- _____ 2. You have to answer 15 questions in the quiz programme.
- _____ 3. The first questions are difficult but later they are easier.
- _____ 4. All the questions are multiple-choice questions.
- _____ 5. You can win a million pounds if you can answer the fifteen question.
- _____ 6. If you don't know the answer to a question, there are two ways you can get help.

IV. Read the text then answer the questions.

Television viewing is a major activity and influence on children. Children in the United States watch an average of three to four hours of television a day.

While television can entertain, inform, and keep our children company, it may also influence them in undesirable ways. Time spent watching television takes away from important activities such as reading, school work, playing, exercise, family interaction, and social development. Children who watch a lot of television are likely to have lower grades in school, read fewer books, exercise less, and be overweight.

Parents can help by doing the following:

- ◆ Don't allow children to watch long blocks of TV.
- ◆ Help them choose suitable programmes. Children's shows on public TV are appropriate, but soap operas, adult sitcoms and adult talk shows are not.
- ◆ Set certain periods when the television will be off. Study times are for learning, not for sitting in front of the TV doing homework.

Make TV viewing an active process for child and parent!

1. How much TV do children in the United States watch on an average day?

2. What are the good effects of television on children?

3. What may be the bad effects of watching too much TV on school work?

4. Should parents let their children watch TV for a long time?

5. Which programmes are appropriate for children and which are not?

6. What can parents do to limit their child's screen time?

IV. Read the passage about Tom's family and choose the best answer (A, B, C or D) to complete each question.

Singapore, a beautiful island country, is one of the most well-known tourist attractions in Southeast Asia. It attracts more than 13 million tourists every year for three main reasons.

First, Singapore is the cleanest and safest country in Asia. Its capital is also named Singapore. This “lion city” is a model of the most modern city in Southeast Asia. Tourists can walk and enjoy beautiful scenery without seeing garbage or smokers in public places. If anyone, even a tourist, throws garbage away on the street, police will arrest them.

Second, the people of Singapore originally came from different countries like Malaysia, China, and India. This leads to the diversity in Singapore’s culture. Tourists can take part in many interesting festivals and holidays throughout the year. They can also find traditional food in Singapore. For example, if tourists love Chinese food, they should go to the China Town. Otherwise, if they want to enjoy Italian food, they should go to a Western restaurant. In addition, English is an official language, so tourists should not have any trouble when speaking.

Third, although the country has many small tropical islands, it’s famous for some fabulous man-made beaches on Sentosa Island such as Palawan Beach and Siloso Beach. Most people do not realize that fact when they see them for the first time. It’s surprising because they totally look like natural beaches.

If you have a chance, go and explore Singapore – a wonderful destination.

1. Which sentence is NOT TRUE about Singapore?

- A. It's an island country in South Asia.
- B. It's a famous destination.
- C. The country and its capital have the same name.
- D. It's famous for artificial beaches.

2. What is the purpose of this passage?

- A. It talks about geographical features of Singapore.
- B. It gives reasons why tourists want to go to Singapore.
- C. It describes some tourist attractions in Singapore.
- D. It introduces some famous restaurants in Singapore.

3. Which word has the same meaning with the word “diversity” in the paragraph 3?
- A. difference B. tradition C. unique D. variety
4. Why can tourists talk to the Singaporeans easily? – Because the Singaporeans
- A. are hospitable. B. speak slowly.
- C. speak English. D. want to speak English to foreigners.
5. Which sentence is TRUE about Palawan Beach and Siloso Beach?
- A. They are natural beaches.
- B. They are on Sensota Island.
- C. They are the most beautiful beaches in Singapore.
- D. They are tropical islands.

GREEN CITIES

What makes a city green? It's a huge challenge for cities to be earth-friendly. Not only do they have lots of people, buildings, traffic, trash, and air pollution, but they also consume more than half of the world's energy.

Many cities in the world have taken up the challenge to be earth-friendly. Look at what some of these cities have done:

Reykjavik, Iceland, is run entirely on green energy. Its transit system uses hydrogen buses and most of its buildings use non-polluting energy sources like geothermal and hydroelectricity.

Malmo and Stockholm in Sweden are noted for their green spaces and parks and for successfully cleaning up their water and air.

Portland, Oregon, was one of the first American cities to focus on earth-friendly transit with light-rail and bike paths to encourage people to leave their cars at home.

Curitiba, Brazil, uses unique green methods for maintenance. Their grass parks are trimmed by sheep!

Vancouver, British Columbia, uses wind, solar, and water energy to generate power. Nearly all of the city is powered by clean hydroelectricity.

- 1. In what country is Malmo?
A. Brazil B. Spain C. Sweden D. Iceland

- 2. How much of the world's energy is consumed by cities?

- 5. It is not cheap for people to buy a robot for their family. _____
- 6. The poor families can buy a robot. _____

IV. Read the passage, then answer the questions

ROBOTS

A robot is a machine. But it is not just any machine. It is a special kind of machine. It is a machine that moves. It follows instructions. The instructions come from a computer. Because it is a machine, it does not make mistakes. And it does not get tired. And it never complains. Unless you tell it to!

Robots are all around us. Some robots are used to make things. For example, robots can help make cars. Some robots are used to explore dangerous places. For example, robots can help explore volcanoes. Some robots are used to clean things. These robots can help vacuum your house. Some robots can even recognize words. They can be used to help answer telephone calls. Some robots look like humans. But most robots do not. Most robots just look like machines.

Long ago, people imagined robots. But nobody was able to make a real robot. The first real robot was made in 1961. It was called Unimate. It was used to help make cars. It looked like a giant arm.

In the future, we will have even more robots. They will do things that we can't do. Or they will do things that we don't want to do. Or they will do things that are too dangerous for us. They will help make life better.

1. What is a robot?

2. Why doesn't a robot make mistakes?

3. Do most robots look like humans?

4. When was the first robot made?

5. What did the first robot look like?

6. Will robots make our lives better or worse?
